FOR E W O R D

It is our sincere desire in presenting this annual to you, that you enjoy it to the greatest extent and that it may bring to you many pleasant memories in the future.

We wish to express our thanks to the faculty and students and every one who has helped to make possible the publication of this annual.

DEDICATION

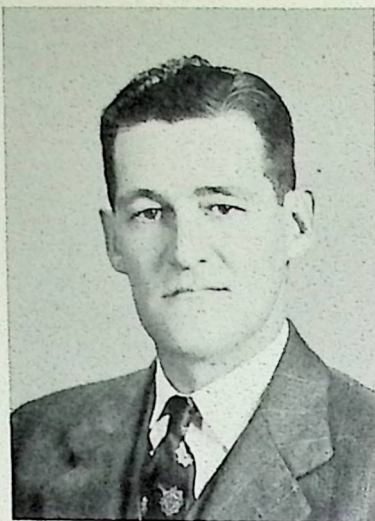

To all those who have contributed to the progress and growth of Elkhorn School in the twenty-five years of its existence: patrons, superintendents, boards of education, principals, faculty, graduates, and students, we gratefully dedicate this annual.

We hope that the next twenty-five years will be as rich and progressive.

The members of the Franklin County Board of Education have been a most co-operative group during our school years. They have placed in our hands many means with which we have been able to improve our school. We have a wider selection of curriculum and extra curricular activities, new buildings and grounds, a well equipped laboratory, and many other benefits too numerous to mention here. It is the wish of the senior class to thank them for the many opportunities they have afforded us.

FACULTY

First Row: Principal, Ronald Connelly; Assistant Principal, Lula Hearn; English, Christine McCoy; Science, Albert Powell; and Social Science, Wendell Taylor. Second Row: Home Economics, Helene Arnold; Latin, Ann Payne; Librarian, Glenna Smith; Music, Nola Chambers; and Basketball Coach, J. W. Smith. Third Row: Physical Education, Virginia Tinscher; Alan Parr; Band, Richard Wilson; English, Wilbur Tinscher; Mathematics, Ida Nelson; Eighth Grade, Dorothy Smith and Mary Lou Lyons. Those without pictures: Hazel Arnold, Doyt Bowling, Virginia Morse, and Christine Stephens.

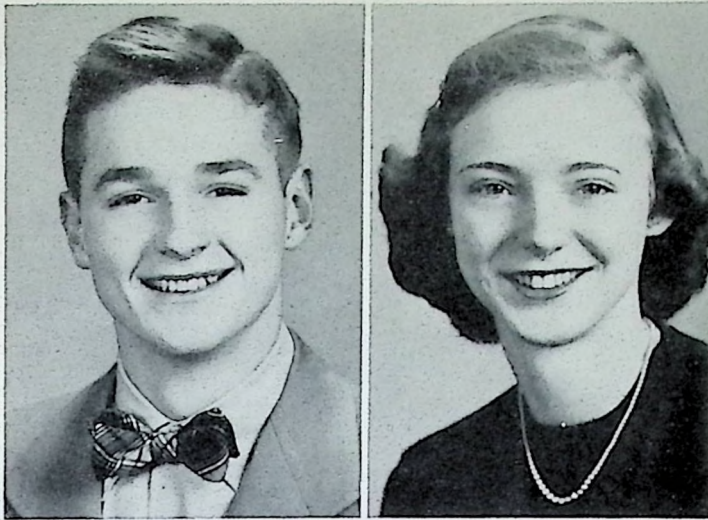

We, the Senior Class, in showing our appreciation to Mr. Joe Botto for his guidance during our first three years of high school, wish to honor him with this page of our yearbook. We realize that this cannot make up for his deep concern for us, his advice given freely to us, or the sleepless nights that he has probably had because of us; but we hope that it may in some small way show our gratitude to him.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1951

We, the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-one, of the city of Frankfort, county of Franklin, and state of Kentucky, being more intelligent than at any time since our arrival at this institution, though a little sad at the thought of our approaching departure, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made in our previous ignorance.

We, the Senior Class, do hereby will all property, real and personal, back to Mr. Connelly and the Faculty. We feel we have had it long enough and should return it after so many years.

We will Miss McCoy to the forthcoming seniors of next year. We can say without doubt in our minds that she appreciates this privilege we have given her. Also to the Juniors we leave our place at the head of all school affairs, with all rights and privileges attached.

We will the Sophomores, our valuable store of knowledge, our sense of humor, and our way of keeping on good terms with all our teachers.

We, the Class, after much sober thinking, will our deepest sympathy to the Freshmen Class as we have nothing else that would please them, except our diplomas, and we need them. Take it or leave it.

We will to all undergraduates, the patience and the hope that they will become Seniors someday.

The individual bequests are as follows:

I, Carolyn Munson, leave one sparkle from my diamond to Joyce Sermonis. Plant it and maybe it will grow.

I, Dottie Lewis, wish I had a diamond to leave but since I don't I leave my glasses to Miss McCoy. Now you can throw your old ones away, they never were much good.

I, Jo Ann McConnell, will to Ronnie Rose my good luck of coming in late at least two days out of every week without being put in detention hall, yet!!!!

I, Joan Smith, leave my big feet to Dick Richards, now you can go places.

I, Betty Lou Smith, leave my volleyball suit to Norma Allen. Please Norma, use it to the best of your ability as I have.

I, Raymond Gravitt, will my left end position on the football team to any underclassman that can stand up.

I, Edna Jean Rucker, leave and take everything with me. Aren't you glad?

I, Bill Karsner, will my skating ability to anybody who doesn't mind a lot of jolts.

I, Mary Ruth Clark, leave Little Bill to Joyce and Ronnie provided they take care of him for me until I'm able to support him.

I, Frances Evans, leave my driving ability to Patsy Young. Watch out pedestrians!!

I, Jean Plunkett, will my nice wavy hair to Wilma Gaines. Take extra good care of it, Wilma.

I, Janie Marshall, will my ping-pong skill to Patsy Bell. Good Luck!!!!

I, Mildred Hicks, will my ability to eat and still have a slim figure to Betty Burns.

I, Lois Ueltschi, leave my ability to skip school and not get caught to Donnie Karsner, provided someone doesn't tell on you.

I, Carol Hilton, leave my athletic ability to my sister Mary. Let's keep it in the family.

I, Richard Baldwin, will my unquestionable driving ability and one old Hudson to David Hilton.

I, Anita Roberts, do hereby bequeath my flirty ways to Dorothy Thornton. Use them wisely, Dot.

I, Sarah Hulette, leave my Hadacol box tops to Carol Cunningham. Save them you might get a prize.

I, Spicie Hearn, being selfish, keep everything for myself including the pain in my back.

I, Agnes McDonald, will my peroxided hair to Deloros Nickles.

I, Paul Tincer, leave my exceptional ability to lure feminine charm to Connie Gardner.
 I, Betty Carter, pass on my name as "The Best Looking Blonde in Elkhorn School", which I inherited, to my sister Mary Lou.
 I, Dixie Fitzpatrick, will my mathematical ability to Norma Miles.
 I, Ruth Derringer, leave my even temper to Miss Hazel Arnold. You Juniors should have a more pleasant class next year.
 I, Mildred Yates, leave my ability to get along with boys to Emma Jo Long.
 I, Louise Thurmond, leave my volleyball suit to Patsy Young, don't worry Patsy you'll grow into it.
 I, Betty Lohstroh, leave my ability to get my man to Betty Yates, maybe this will help you, Betty.
 I, Alice Jean Florian, will my ability to write letters to sailors to Betty Shepard.
 I, Boo Bell, leave my angora sweater to Dick Richards. I hope it will come in handy because he seems to like it.
 I, Bobby Jones, will my guard position on the football team to George Smith.
 I, Charles Carter, will my ability to wear western jeans to Bobby Harrod. Maybe if you are melted down you can be poured in.
 I, Jennie Coovert, will my ability to get a Carter to Jimmie Karsner. Maybe you will do better than your brothers.
 I, Hazel Smither, leave my technique of getting my man to all the lovelorn girls of E. H. S., make the best of this girls.
 I, Barbara Duvall, leave all the happy memories of my high school life to my sister Agnes and all the other underclassmen, poor things.
 I, Dickie Reed, will my height to Jimmie Karsner. Now you will be up in the world.
 I, Jimmie Lathrem, will my tackle position on the football team to Billy Privett.
 I, Clay Thompson, leave my freckles to Sarah Pollard.
 I, Reva Cornn, leave to my beloved teachers all the heavenly peace and quite that they have not had in the past years.
 In the year of our Lord One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-one we now sign our name.

PROPHECY

Dear Barbara,

I was so glad to hear that you arrived in Egypt safely. I hope that your career as the wife of an Air Force Colonel will not be too demanding. Isn't Leon about due for another promotion?

Since you have been gone for some time, I thought you might be interested in hearing all the news of our classmates from Elkhorn. I rumaged around town and came up with the following dirt:

Dixie is back to her writing. She is now writing for WFKY-TV. Her program is called "The Life of Sal." She must have gotten most of her ideas from high school at Elkhorn. Starring in her show is Agnes McDonald as Sal, a quiet, reserved, sweet, Hollywood actress. Reva Cornn is now appearing in Lexington with her high-school horse. She is connected with a nationally known circus owned by Carol Hilton's ex-husband. Carol is still in Reno following the divorce. Betty Lou Smith has joined the ranks as one of the country's greatest lady wrestlers. Part of her success is due to her trainer, Raymond Gravitt. Clay Thompson has his own band. It is the former Gene Kruppa Band and is now playing at the Palms. Irma Bell is featured as vocalist with Clay's Band. She calls herself Bee Bee. Richard Baldwin has taken a job with an engineering company in Argentina. He is due for another $50,000 promotion soon.

Dottie Lewis is now the Speaker of the House. The four room frame house and not the marble one. Bill Karsner finally had his dream come true. He is now employed as librarian in the library of the Midway Girls School. Mildred Yates and Anita Roberts are trying their hands at singing. They are now appearing in a nightclub in Greenwich Village. Bobby Jones and Jimmy Lathrem are successful businessmen. Their latest venture is real estate. Mary Ruth Clark is employed in one of the bigger clubs of the South as a blues singer. She is called "Sweet Mama Stringbean."

Spicie Hearn is now well known as Fifi. You can see her nightly at "Charlie's Corner" trying to hide behind a bubble. "Charlie's Corner" is managed by Charles Carter and is becoming very popular in this section of the country. His most sought after cigarette and hat-check girl is Jenny Lee Covert. Jo Ann McConnell is continuing her exploits as a heart-breaker. Her list now boasts of fifty-six hearts conquered. Second only to Jo Ann is Janie Marshall. Her list of hearts conquered is fifty strong. Alice Florian has her decorating shop in Louisville. She also has Joe and three little Joes. Sarah Hulette, with her willowy figure, is a Power's model. Don't be shocked if you see her on some magazine cover soon. Guess who I saw when I walked in Wolf Wiles the other day, Frances Evans, dressed to kill. I had to look twice to see if it were really she. She married the governor's son about a month ago.

Ruth Derringer had become the first lady manager of a J. C. Penney store in Frankfort. She is now married to Junior and they plan to start a J. R. Goodrich store soon. Carolyn Munson is doing welfare work—the welfare of her family of six boys, that is. Betty Carter never did tire of cheerleading. She is a professional now for the Indianapolis Olympians. Louise Thurmond is the first lady softball player. It is rumored that she has received a bid from the Brooklyn Dodgers for next season. Mildred Hicks has her own western show over WFKY. Her program comes on in the morning and is called, "Good Morning From Mildred."

Richard Reed has his own walking billboard service. His business covers all establishments of Frankfort. Joan Smith is modeling clothes for the smaller-than-average person in Seventeen magazine. Betty Lohstroh, Hazel Smither, and Edna Rucker formed a club called the "Younger Married Women's League." It is now known all over the state as one of the up-and-coming clubs. Paul Tinchler attended the University of Kentucky after he was paroled from detention hall at Elkhorn and is now teaching U. S. Government at Peaks Mill. The former Lois Ueltschi and her husband, Ralph, have taken over the management of the Market House.

After hearing of all the interesting things happening to our old classmates, you would not be interested in the life of a schoolteacher's wife, so I shall close for the present.

Fondly,

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Congress of Elkhorn High School is none other than the Student Council. Representatives are elected by the students from each home room and their term of office is one year. The laws that rule E. H. S. have been established here.

This year has been a big year for each member of the council. The group has been successful during their administration by helping to make E. H. S. a better school.

HEAR YE HEAR YE

The Elk's volleyball team has had another successful year without a defeat in the series of games with the Franklin county teams. Only onetime did the girls have to play two out of three games to win the set. The girls ended the victorious season by bringing home the county volleyball trophy.

We, the volleyball team, wish to express our appreciation to Mrs. Tincher for her patience and time in coaching us in such a successful year.
